Thursday, 22 November 2007

Pan Pacific Singapore has won "Asia's Leading Business Hotel" award for the second year at the 14th Annual World Travel Awards 2007.

One of the most comprehensive and prestigious travel awards ceremonies, the World Travel Awards aims to acknowledge, reward and celebrate laudable global achievements in the travel industry. 167,000 travel professionals and guests in over 190 countries worldwide were invited to participate in the voting process. This year, the World Travel Awards has expanded the world-renowned honours scheme to include wider regions.

As Director of Marketing, Michael Schmitt explains, "This is a significant achievement, distinguishing us from other hotels in Asia Pacific. Pan Pacific Singapore welcomes a significant proportion of business travelers amongst its clientele and this award reaffirms the hotel's accomplishment as the accommodation of choice with guests by providing personalised care. The award represents recognition of the ongoing education process, consistent efforts and teamwork by the associates."

The winners will be recognised at the Annual Gala Ceremony held in Bangalore, India on 2 November.
