WTA 2007 Gala Ceremony names Emirates Palace the World's Leading Conference Hotel

Thursday, 27 December 2007

Abu Dhabi's leading luxury hotel, Emirates Palace, has been given the honour of being named the world's Leading Conference Hotel at the 2007 World Travel Awards (WTA) 14th Annual Gala Ceremony, held on December 12.

The event was held on the Caribbean Islands of the Turks and Caicos and around 330 travel industry members and members of the media attended the ceremony to honour the top travel products of 2007.

As the Middle East and North Africa's largest meeting and conference space, Emirates Palace has an auditorium which can seat over a thousand people/

The hotel also received nine of the most prestigious WTA awards in the Middle East and Africa awards division earlier this year, including Leading Conference Hotel and Leading Suite.
