

Malaysia's Genting Highlands Resort awarded WTA's 'World's Leading Casino'

16/01/2008

Malaysia's sole legal land-based casino, the Genting Highlands Resort, has been named 2007's 'World's Leading Casino resort' at the 14th annual World Travel Awards.

Receiving around 167,000 votes from industry members, the casino beat out competitors MGM Grand Hotel and Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas as well as Sydney's Star City Hotel and Casino.

"Catering also to families, honeymooners and holidaymakers, the resort's standards and facilities are world class; and the quality of service is second to none," said Mr Mokhtar, Malaysia's Director of Tourism.

Run by Resorts World Bhd, the Genting Highlands Resort has also been awarded the 2007 and 2008 'Hospitality Asia Platinum Award' as well as 'Malaysia's Most Valuable Brand' for 2007 as well as the 2007 'Malaysia Spa and Wellness Award'.

The advertisement features the Travpress logo at the top left, which consists of a stylized blue 'T' icon followed by the word 'Travpress' in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. Below the logo is a dark blue rectangular area containing white text. The text reads: 'A new & innovative email marketing service designed specifically for the Travel Industry'. At the bottom of this area is a light blue button with a white right-pointing arrow and the text 'Click for details'.
